2011 Keeneland Sales Schedule

September 11-24 Yearlings—Closed

November 6-19 Breeding Stock—Closed

January 9-14, 2012 Horses of All Ages—Closes November 1

Keeneland has firmly established itself as the world's leading Thoroughbred auction house, selling more champions and stakes winners than any other sales company and unmatched in terms of offering the best horses, state-of-the-art sales facilities and a range of client amenities.

Keeneland's global brand attracts a diverse international clientele. North American Thoroughbreds are the most sought after in the world, and today form the foundation bloodlines for a growing number of countries, such as Argentina, South Africa, Russia and India. In 2010, buyers from nearly every state and 50 countries participated in Keeneland's four annual auctions — the April Two-Year-Olds in Training, September Yearling, November Breeding Stock, and January Horses of All Ages auctions — where sales totaled more than $381 million.

The concept of Keeneland serving as a sales facility and a racetrack was expressed in the track's original prospectus in the mid-1930s. The first Thoroughbred auction was held in the Keeneland paddock on April 25, 1938, under the management of E.J. Tranter and his Lexington representative, Thomas Cromwell. A total of 31 horses grossed $24,885, for an average of $802.74.

Keeneland began holding annual sales in 1943. Prior to World War II, many Central Kentucky breeders sent their yearlings each summer to the Fasig-Tipton sale in Saratoga, New York. But a wartime restriction on rail transport forced breeders to keep their yearlings at home, prompting the inaugural summer sale, which was conducted by Fasig-Tipton and held under a tent in the Keeneland paddock. Beginning August 9, the three-day sale was front-page news in the Lexington Herald. Fred W. Hooper purchased his first yearling at that sale, paying $10,200 for a colt by Sir Gallahad III. Named Hoop, Jr., the colt went on to win the 1945 Kentucky Derby.

Fasig-Tipton elected not to hold the 1944 yearling sale at Keeneland, so Hal Price Headley and A.B. Hancock Sr. conceived a co-op organization, the Breeders' Sales Company, to continue the sale in Lexington. From that sale came both of the two-year-old champions of 1945—the filly Beaugay and the colt Star Pilot.

Overall, Keeneland sells a remarkably high percentage of stakes winners. During the past decade, Keeneland graduates have accounted for nearly half of all winners of the Triple Crown classic races. Keeneland has sold 18 Kentucky Derby (G1) winners — including

Geoffrey G. Russell, Director of Sales

Geoffrey Russell joined Keeneland prior to the 1996 September Yearling Sale as Assistant Director of Sales to Rogers Beasley. He has served as Director of Sales since June 2001.

Born in Dublin, Ireland, Russell worked at Coolmore Stud and as a bid spotter at Goffs. He came to the United States in 1982 and worked at Fasig-Tipton Sales before leaving to work at Elmendorf Farm. He returned to Fasig-Tipton as Vice President of Fasig-Tipton Appraisals and Director of Sales Administration prior to joining the Keeneland staff.

Russell represents Keeneland on the Sales Integrity Task Force, and the Society of International Thoroughbred Auctioneers (SITA), having served as the organization's chairman in 2003 and 2004. He also sits on the board of the Grayson-Jockey Club Foundation.

Thomas J. Thornbury, Associate Director of Sales

Tom Thornbury joined Keeneland as Associate Director of Sales in June 2002.

Thornbury grew up on the farm owned by his father, John Thornbury, and his partner, Dr. Robert Copelan, where he was involved in training and farm management, and assisted in equine orthopedic surgery. Thornbury spent nearly 10 years at Airdrie Stud, owned by former Governor and Mrs. Brereton C. Jones, working first as yearling manager and later as general manager.

He is a past-president of the Thoroughbred Club of America and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers Club, and formerly served on the board of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association and Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders.

Thornbury's primary duties at Keeneland involve acting as liaison to consignor interests, developing relationships with horsemen in emerging racing markets, and serving as a member of the inspection team.

2011 winner Animal Kingdom, Big Brown, Fusaichi Pegasus, Winning Colors and Alysheba — and 19 Preakness (G1) winners, highlighted by 2011 champion Shackleford and Lookin At Lucky. Seventeen Belmont (G1) winners have gone through the Keeneland auction ring, led by five of the past six champions — Ruler On Ice (2011), Drosselmeyer (2010), Da' Tara (2008), Rags to Riches (2007) and her half-brother, Jazil (2006).

Keeneland has had a profound impact on the Breeders' Cup World Championships as well. Since the inaugural running in 1984, Keeneland sale graduates have dominated, counting among them Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) winners and Horses of the Year Zenyatta (2009), Curlin (2007), A.P. Indy (1992), Black Tie Affair (1991), Sunday Silence (1989) and Alysheba (1988). Four Keeneland sales alumni — Uncle Mo, Unrivaled Belle, Shared Account and Dangerous Midge — captured Breeders' Cup events in 2010, joining such racing luminaries as English Channel, Ashado, Midnight Lute, Speightstown, Forever Together, Stardom Bound, Azeri and Johannesburg.

Yearlings purchased at Keeneland have excelled on the world stage as well, winning the Epsom Derby and its French and Irish counterparts. In 2008, two-time Horse of the Year Curlin captured the $6 million Dubai World Cup, while Good Ba Ba earned Horse of the Year and champion miler honors in Hong Kong and Arravale was named Canadian Horse of the Year. Last year, Dream Ahead received co-top weight of 126 pounds among two-year-olds on the World Thoroughbred Rankings for his wins in the Shadwell Middle Park Stakes (G1) and Darley Prix Morny (G1), while Group 1 winner Pathfork ranked second with 120 pounds.

The September Yearling Sale and November Breeding Stock Sale have evolved into Keeneland's signature sales.

Yearlings were sold as part of a fall mixed sale from 1944 through the late 1940s, and sold in a separate fall yearling sale beginning in 1950. In 1960, the yearling sale was moved to the month of September. The September Sale became Keeneland's only yearling sale beginning in 2003 with the discontinuation of the July Selected Yearling Sale.

In 2010, Keeneland officials reformatted the two-week September Sale, opening with select evening sessions on Sunday and Monday designed to create excitement and momentum that would carry forward into the following sessions. And, in an effort to spread the quality consistently throughout the first week, Keeneland consolidated the remaining sessions into one comprehensive Book 2 catalog, presenting yearlings alphabetically by dam rather than ranked by pedigree and conformation.

Today, the September Sale is the global marketplace for Thoroughbred yearlings, yielding such champions as Zenyatta, Curlin, Gio Ponti, Uncle Mo, Midnight Lute, Stardom Bound, Forever Together, Benny the Bull, and English Channel, as well as the winners of major stakes in Europe, South America, Russia and Asia.

Meydan City, a Kingmambo colt, holds the record for the highest price paid for a yearling at the September Sale, selling for $11.7 million in 2006. The highest price for a filly at the sale is the $4.4 million paid for the Storm Cat filly Moon's Whisper in 2000.

Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale — which catalogs broodmares, broodmare prospects, weanlings, stallion prospects and shares — is the world's most important auction of its type in terms of total sales and average.

A November Sale record for a broodmare or broodmare prospect was set in 2007 when Irish-bred Playful Act brought $10.5 million. Some of world's top Thoroughbred broodmares and broodmare prospects have sold at Keeneland in November, among them champions Ashado (2005, a then-world record $9 million) and Jewell Princess (2000, $4.9 million, in foal to Storm Cat), as well as Cash Run (2003, $7.1 million, in foal to Storm Cat), Korveya (1998, $7 million, in foal to Woodman), Windsharp (2003, $6.1 million, in foal to Gone West), Madcap Escapade (2006, $6 million, in foal to Pulpit), Spain (2003, $5.3 million, in foal to Storm Cat), and Santa Catarina (2000, $4.8 million, in foal to A.P. Indy).

First held in 1956 — and part of Keeneland's annual sales calendar since 1961 — the January Sale is open to all ages of Thoroughbred racing and breeding stock, as well as stallion shares and seasons. Da'Tara, winner of the 2008 Belmont, is a graduate of the January Sale. The Tiznow colt sold for $100,000 in the 2006 January Sale.

Chauncey Morris, Sales Marketing Associate

Chauncey Morris has been traveling the world to promote Keeneland and Thoroughbred racing for nearly a decade.

In November 2002, Keeneland tapped Morris to establish an emerging markets program within the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association / Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders, Inc. which sought to develop relations with countries whose growing Thoroughbred breeding and racing programs had been positively affected by globalization.

Morris joined the Keeneland sales staff in March 2006, where he continues to oversee a global sales strategy as well as initiatives to attract a new generation of owners in the United States.

Morris formerly served as a trade specialist for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture from 1999- 2001, when he was appointed as an analyst and advisor to then-Governor Paul Patton's Office of Agricultural Policy.

Mark Maronde, Sales Account Executive

Mark Maronde brings more than 20 years of experience in the Thoroughbred industry to the Keeneland sales team, which he joined in April 2009.

As account executive, he assists with recruiting and marketing efforts for the Keeneland sales.

Maronde spent five years in the bloodstock division of WinStar Farm prior to Keeneland. He honed his inspection and sales recruiting skills as National Field Representative for Barretts' Equine Ltd. (1996 - 2009) and with the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (2007-2009). He also worked for Cromwell Bloodstock from 1990 - 1995.

Ryan Mahan, Senior Auctioneer

Keeneland's senior auctioneer, Ryan Mahan, considered following his stepfather, Dr. Robert Copelan, into veterinary medicine. Instead, he finds himself in the auction stand at the leading Thoroughbred sales in the world.

Mahan initially had his own auction company but in 1977 he came to work at Keeneland as a bid spotter and later chief announcer for several years following the departure of Tom Hammond. Promoted to auctioneer in the mid '80s, he succeeded the late Tom Caldwell in 2001 as senior auctioneer. Mahan also serves on the inspection committee for Keeneland's September Yearling Sale.

One of the most famous rags-to-riches stories in racing is that of a horse sold as a yearling for $1,100 at the 1976 January Sale. The next year, as an unheralded two-year-old named John Henry, he sold again for $2,200 to Hal "Bubba" Snowden. From his modest beginnings, John Henry went on to become Horse of the Year in 1981 and 1984, amassing then-record career earnings of $6.6 million.

In 1993, Keeneland inaugurated its April Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale, held during the track's spring race meeting. The 2007 April Sale was the first juvenile auction in North America to utilize a Polytrack surface for its under tack show. In 2008, the April Sale was moved forward on the calendar to Toyota Blue Grass Week.

Champion Lookin At Lucky, winner of the 2010 Preakness, is a graduate of the April Sale, as are Kentucky Derby winners Big Brown (2008) and Thunder Gulch (1995), and Kentucky Oaks (G1) winners Keeper Hill (1998) and Gal in a Ruckus (1995).

Keeneland annually provides Thoroughbred investors with literally thousands of opportunities to build a racing or breeding program. And each year, you can expect that yet another Keeneland sale graduate — from Japan to Russia, Dubai to America — will emerge as a Thoroughbred champion.
