

Keeneland Stakes Winners of Gold Trophies

Keeneland awards a gold julep cup to the winning owner of each graded stakes race. When an owner receives eight of these cups, he is awarded the Keeneland Tray, a solid gold serving piece. An owner who receives eight additional cups, after having earned the tray, receives a solid gold pitcher, and then receives a solid gold bowl with eight additional graded stakes wins. A new milestone trophy is being considered for anyone who wins eight more graded stakes.

From the fall meeting of 1952, when the program was inaugurated, through 1993 Keeneland presented a gold cup to the winning owner of almost every major stakes race. A tray was awarded with the sixth stakes victory and a pitcher with the 12th win. The program was changed prior to the 1994 spring meeting to reflect the increased number of stakes races.

Claiborne Farm became the first recipient of the gold bowl in the fall of 2003, after having become the first to receive a pitcher in the fall of 1968.

Bwamazon Farm (Millard Waldheim) became the second recipient of the pitcher in the spring of 1983; William S. Farish became the third in the spring of 2003. Hasty House Farm became the first recipient of the tray in the spring of 1955; Claiborne Farm became the second in the spring of 1957; J. Graham Brown, the third, in the spring of 1965; T.A. Grissom, the fourth, in the spring of 1969; Bwamazon Farm, the fifth, in the fall of 1972; Golden Chance Farm, the sixth, in the fall of 1976; C.V. Whitney, the seventh, in the fall of 1976; Mr. and Mrs. Bertram A. Firestone, the eighth, in the fall of 1981; Darby Dan Farm, the ninth, in the fall of 1988; Allen E. Paulson, the 10th, in the spring of 1993; William S. Farish, the 11th in the fall of 1993; Overbrook Farm, the 12th in the spring of 2001; Sam-Son Farm, the 13th in the spring of 2005; and Juddmonte Farms, the 14th in the fall of 2005.

Listed are the owners and stables with eligibility toward the tray, pitcher, bowl, milestone trophy to be determined and the number of cups received toward that eligibility.

The gold bowl, julep cup, pitcher and tray that are awarded to multiple graded stakes-winning owners.
