History of the November Breeding Stock Sale

The November Breeding Stock Sale is the world's premier sale of its kind, featuring broodmares and broodmare prospects, weanlings, horses of racing age and stallions. This year will mark Keeneland's 68th annual November Sale, which began in 1944. With the exception of the early years and dispersals, yearlings have not been sold in November.

November Sale Graduates

A November Sale record for a broodmare or broodmare prospect was set in 2007 when Group 1 stakes winner Playful Act (IRE) sold for a then world-record $10.5 million. Many of the world's top broodmares and race fillies are alumni of the November Sale, including champions Ashado (2005, $9 million) and Jewell Princess (2000, $4.9 million, in foal to Storm Cat), as well as stakes winners Cash Run (2003, $7.1 million, in foal to Storm Cat), Korveya (1998, $7 million, in foal to Woodman), Windsharp (2003, $6.1 million, in foal to Gone West) and Spain (2003, $5.3 million, in foal to Storm Cat).

Recent November Sale graduates include 2010 champion juvenile colt and Grey Goose Breeders' Cup Juvenile (G1) winner Uncle Mo, as well as such 2011 graded stakes winners as Hilda's Passion (Ballerina Stakes-G1); Drill (Del Mar Futurity-G1); The Factor (Pat O'Brien Stakes-G1); Miss Match (ARG) (Santa Margarita Invitational-G1); Pool Play (Stephen Foster Handicap-G1); Summer Soiree (Del Mar Oaks-G1); To Honor and Serve (Pennsylvania Derby-G2); Overdriven (Sanford Stakes-G2); Prayer for Relief (Super Derby-G2); Strong Suit (Bet365 Lennox Stakes-G2); City to City (Palomar Handicap-G2); No Advantage (General George Stakes-G2); La Gran Bailadora (Distorted Humor Kentucky Cup Distaff-G3); Finale (Summer Stakes-G3); Noble's Promise (Aristides Stakes-G3); Northern Causeway (British Columbia Derby-G3); and Savvy Supreme (Monmouth Oaks-G3).

A complete list of stakes winners sold as weanlings in November (2006 – Nov. 1, 2011) can be found on page 13 of this press kit.

3,920 Horses Cataloged For 2011 November Sale

At total of 3,920 horses are cataloged for the 11-day sale, which will feature:

- The dispersals of the estates of Edward P. (Ned) Evans' Spring Hill Farm, consigned by Lane's End, agent, and Prince Saud bin Khaled's Palides Investments N.V. Inc., consigned by Chanteclair Farm, agent.

- 2010 champion filly Blind Luck and such Grade 1 stakes-winning fillies and mares as Buster's Ready, Gypsy's Warning (SAF), Hooch Why, Life At Ten, Royal Delta, Switch and Unrivaled Belle.

- A weanling half-sister by Henrythenavigator to 2010 Horse of the Year Zenyatta and Grade 1 stakes winner Balance, consigned by Select Sales, agent.

- Horses in training from such prominent stables as WinStar and Thoroughbred Legends, among others, on November 15.

- Shares in the stallions Smart Strike, Lemon Drop Kid, Pleasantly Perfect, Posse, Aragorn (IRE) and Belong to Me at the end of session 1 on Monday, November 7.

Of the 3,920 horses cataloged, 1,992 broodmares or broodmare prospects, 1,518 weanlings, 398 horses of racing age, five stallions and seven stallion shares will be offered.

Mares in-foal to 206 of the world's top stallions, highlighted by Awesome Again, Bernardini, Blame, Candy Ride (ARG), Cape Cross, Curlin, Distorted Humor, Dynaformer, Eskendereya, Giant's Causeway, Hard Spun, Henrythenavigator, Indian Charlie, Lemon Drop Kid, Lookin At Lucky, Malibu Moon, Medaglia d'Oro, Mineshaft, More Than Ready, Pulpit, Quality Road, Raven's Pass, Scat Daddy, Sea the Stars, Smart Strike, Speightstown, Stormy Atlantic, Street Cry (IRE), Street Sense, Summer Bird, Tale of the Cat, Tapit, Tiznow, Unbridled's Song, War Front and Warrior's Reward, will be offered.

The November catalog also features weanlings by 198 prominent sires, including A.P. Indy, Arch, Awesome Again, Bernardini, Candy Ride (ARG), Colonel John, Curlin, Distorted Humor, Dixie Union, Dynaformer, Empire Maker, Giant's Causeway, Hard Spun, Henrythenavigator, Indian Charlie, Lemon Drop Kid, Malibu Moon, Medaglia d'Oro, Mineshaft, More Than Ready, Pulpit, Scat Daddy, Smart Strike, Speightstown, Stormy Atlantic, Street Cry (IRE), Street Sense, Tale of the Cat, Tapit, Tiz Wonderful, Tiznow, Unbridled's Song, War Front and Zensational, among others.

Keeneland Sales Staff

Walt Robertson, Vice President of Sales

Walt Robertson, a long-time leader in the equine auction industry, was named to the newly created position of Vice President of Sales in January 2011.

Robertson joined Keeneland following 35 years at Fasig-Tipton. He oversees and directs all functions of the Keeneland sales.

In addition to his vast work in the Thoroughbred industry, Robertson also has been active in the Central Kentucky community for many years. He has served as the Chairman of the Kentucky Horse Park Commission, is a former director and past president of the Thoroughbred Club of America and is a past member of the Sayre School and The Lexington School boards of trustees. He also continues to serve as President/Auctioneer for Swinebroad-Denton, Inc., a full-service real estate auction company in Lexington.

Geoffrey G. Russell, Director of Sales

Geoffrey Russell joined Keeneland prior to the 1996 September Yearling Sale as Assistant Director of Sales to Rogers Beasley. He has served as Director of Sales since June 2001.

Born in Dublin, Ireland, Russell worked at Coolmore Stud and as a bid spotter at Goffs. He came to the United States in 1982 and worked at Fasig-Tipton Sales before leaving to work at Elmendorf Farm. He returned to Fasig-Tipton as Vice President of Fasig-Tipton Appraisals and Director of Sales Administration prior to joining the Keeneland staff.

Russell represents Keeneland on the Sales Integrity Task Force, and the Society of International Thoroughbred Auctioneers (SITA), having served as the organization's chairman in 2003 and 2004. He also sits on the board of the Grayson-Jockey Club Foundation.

Thomas J. Thornbury, Associate Director of Sales

Tom Thornbury joined Keeneland as Associate Director of Sales in June 2002.

Thornbury grew up on the farm owned by his father, John Thornbury, and his partner, Dr. Robert Copelan. Thornbury spent nearly 10 years at Airdrie Stud, owned by former Governor and Mrs. Brereton C. Jones, working first as yearling manager and later as general manager.

He is a past president of the Thoroughbred Club of America and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers Club, and formerly served on the board of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association/Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders.

Thornbury's primary duties at Keeneland involve acting as liaison to consignor interests, developing relationships with horsemen in emerging racing markets, and serving as a member of the inspection team.

Ryan Mahan, Senior Auctioneer

Keeneland's senior auctioneer, Ryan Mahan, considered following his stepfather, Dr. Robert Copelan, into veterinary medicine. Instead, he finds himself in the auction stand at the leading Thoroughbred sales in the world.

Mahan initially had his own auction company but in 1977 he came to work at Keeneland as a bid spotter and later chief announcer for several years following the departure of Tom Hammond. Promoted to auctioneer in the mid '80s, he succeeded the late Tom Caldwell in 2001 as senior auctioneer. Mahan also serves on the inspection committee for Keeneland's September Yearling Sale.

Chauncey Morris, Sales Marketing Associate

Chauncey Morris has been traveling the world to promote Keeneland and Thoroughbred racing for nearly a decade.

In November 2002, Keeneland tapped Morris to establish an emerging markets program within the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association/Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders

Morris joined the Keeneland sales staff in March 2006, where he continues to oversee a global sales strategy as well as initiatives to attract a new generation of owners in the United States.

Morris formerly served as a trade specialist for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture from 1999–2001, when he was appointed as an analyst and advisor to then-Governor Paul Patton's Office of Agricultural Policy.

Mark Maronde, Sales Account Executive

Mark Maronde brings more than 20 years of experience in the Thoroughbred industry to the Keeneland sales team, which he joined in April 2009.

As account executive, he assists with recruiting and marketing efforts for the Keeneland sales.

Maronde spent five years in the bloodstock division of WinStar Farm prior to Keeneland. He honed his inspection and sales recruiting skills as National Field Representative for Barretts' Equine Ltd. (1996 – 2009) and with the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (2007- 2009). He also worked for Cromwell Bloodstock from 1990 – 1995.

Will Mayer, Sales Associate

Will Mayer joined the Keeneland sales team in July following his graduation from the Darley Flying Start program. During the two-year course he worked at stud farms and racing stables in five countries and completed internships under some of the world's leading trainers, including Sydney's Leading Metropolitan trainer Chris Waller.

He interned with Keeneland from 2008/2009; and previously worked at Fares Farm.

A native of Winchester, Mayer is a 2008 Magna Cum Laude graduate of Transylvania University, where he earned a B.A. in Finance and French.

November Breeding Stock Sale

68th Annual

Keeneland/Coady

The November Breeding Stock Sale is the world's premier Thoroughbred auction of its type in terms of total sales and average. The sale, conducted annually since 1944, includes broodmares, weanlings, racing and broodmare prospects, stallions, stallion shares and seasons. With the exception of the early years and dispersals, yearlings have not been sold during November.

Dreamtheimpossible, in foal to leading sire Gallileo (IRE), brought top price of $2.55 million at the 2010 November Breeding Stock Sale.

Owner: Frank Stronach

Website: adenastallions.com

Background: Adena Springs is owned by Frank Stronach, one of the most prominent members of the Thoroughbred industry. Stronach founded Magna Entertainment Corp. (MEC), which owns and operates racetracks and training centers across North America, among them Gulfstream Park and Santa Anita

Frank Stronach

Stronach, who has been involved in breeding and racing horses for more than 40 years, won the Eclipse Award as outstanding breeder in North America for 2000, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2010. He also won Eclipse Awards as outstanding owner in 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2008.

In addition, Stronach has received 11 Sovereign Awards as Canada's top owner and breeder, including leading breeder in 2010. Adena Springs is the only program to win the Eclipse and Sovereign as leading breeder in the same year (accomplished in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2010). Stronach was recognized as North America's top breeder from 2004-2008 by stakes winners and earnings, and he is the first to breed a Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) winner who sired a Breeders' Cup Classic winner - Awesome Again (1998), sire of Ghostzapper (2004). Both stallions stand at Adena Springs Kentucky.

Stronach developed his first farm in Versailles, Kentucky, in 1989 and his first Florida farm in 1996. In 2007, Adena Springs Kentucky moved to a new 2,000-acre location in Paris.

Denali Stud

Location: Paris, Kentucky

Owners: Craig and Holly Bandoroff

Website: www.denalitud.com

Background:

Craig and Holly Bandoroff's 570-acre Denali Stud near Paris, Kentucky, is one of the Thoroughbred industry's leading bloodstock consignors.

Craig Bandoroff was a jockey in New

Craig Bandoroff

Jersey in the early 1970s until a spill at Garden State Park in 1974 left him without the use of his right arm, forcing him to explore other career paths within the industry. The Bandoroffs each gained experience working in various bloodstock and sales capacities, and in 1990 they opened Denali Stud. "Denali" is derived from the name given by the Eskimos to Mt. McKinley and means "the great one."

In the late 1990s, Bob Lewis and his wife, Beverly, sent their champion racehorse Serena's Song to Denali when she was retired. Denali has sold several of Serena Song's offspring, including Group 1 winner Sophisticat, by Storm Cat, for $3.4 million at the 2000 Keeneland July Selected Yearling Sale; Grade 2 winner Harlington, by Unbridled, for $2.8 million at the 2003 September Sale; and Colourful Score, a colt by Storm Cat, for $3.5 million, at the 2005 September Sale.

Denali sold champion Uncle Mo as a weanling for $160,000 at the 2008 November Sale.

Eaton Sales

Location: Lexington, Kentucky

Owners: Reiley McDonald

Website: eatonsales.com

Background:

Eaton Sales Inc. is owned by Reiley McDonald, who purchased the sales agency from its founder, the late Lee Eaton, in the 1990s.

A Maryland native, McDonald holds a degree in Animal Sciences from Cornell University and worked at various Maryland racetracks as an exercise rider and assistant trainer. He was an officer of Fasig-Tipton Company Inc. prior to buying Eaton Sales. McDonald also owns Athens-Woods Farm in Lexington, Kentucky.

Eaton Sales served as agent for the dispersal of the W.T. Young family's Overbrook Farm, which in 2009/2010 sold 205 horses for $38,606,000, ranking it as the second-largest dispersal in Keeneland sales history. Only the Nelson Bunker Hunt dispersal, which sold 580 horses for $46,912,800 in 1988, ranks higher.

Gainesway

Location: Lexington

President: Antony Beck

Website: gainesway.com

Background:

Located on Paris Pike, Gainesway is a 1,500-acre full-service Thoroughbred farm that is home to 10 stallions, including champion Afleet Alex, Mr. Greeley, Tapit and Birdstone.

The late Graham J. Beck, who died in July 2010, was a successful businessman, wine maker and Thoroughbred horseman in his native South Africa. He purchased Gainesway Farm from founder John R. Gaines in 1989. Gaines was famous for his innovations in the industry, including the concept that became the Breeders' Cup World Championships.

Today, Beck's son, Antony, oversees farm operations as President.

Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency

Location: Lexington

President: John Sikura

Website: hillndalefarms.com

Background: Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency is the sales arm of John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Farm near Lexington.

Sikura was mentored by his father, the late John Sikura, Jr., a Canadian entrepreneur and founder of Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Ontario. The younger Sikura grew up attending the sales and races with his father, and he learned the business while working at Hill 'n' Dale's Kentucky division in the 1980s.

Following the death of his father in 1994, Sikura began to build the Kentucky farm into a prominent breeding and sales operation. Today, Hill 'n' Dale stands 11 stallions, including Stormy Atlantic, Roman Ruler, Midnight Lute and El Corredor. The farm is the final resting place of 1977 Triple Crown winner and leading sire Seattle Slew.

Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency also is prominent at other Keeneland sales. At the 2007 November Breeding Stock Sale, it sold, as agent for Swettenham Stud, the highest-priced horse in sale history - Playful Act (IRE) - who sold for $10.5 million. The amount is the third-highest price ever paid for a horse at any Keeneland sale.

Lane's End

Bill and Will Farish

Location: Versailles, Ky.

Principals: William S. Farish and his son, Bill

Website: lanesend.com

Background: Lane's End owner William S. Farish manages the 3,000-acre operation near Versailles, Kentucky, with his son, Bill. A lifelong horseman, the elder Farish has hosted former President George H.W. Bush, his son, President George W. Bush, and Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, at Lane's End. He was appointed by President George W. Bush as the United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James and served from 2001-2004. In October 2006, Farish, who has served on Keeneland's Board of Directors since 1985, succeeded James E. (Ted) Bassett III as a Keeneland trustee.

Farish bought his first Thoroughbred at the 1963 September Sale. Since then, he has campaigned more than 155 stakes winners and bred more than 280 stakes winners, including Horses of the Year Mineshaft (2003) and A.P. Indy (1992). He won the Eclipse Award as leading breeder in 1992 and 1999. Lane's End is currently home to such stallions as Smart Strike, Candy Ride (ARG), Curlin, Lemon Drop Kid, Quality Road and Mineshaft.

Bill Farish's involvement in the industry includes having served as Chairman of the Board of Breeders' Cup Ltd from 2006-2011. In 2005, Farish founded Woodford Racing LLC, a partnership that includes friends and associates he has introduced to Thoroughbred racing.

Paramount Sales LLC

Location: Lexington

Owners: Pat Costello and Gabriel Duignan

Website: paramountsales.net

Background: Paramount Sales LLC is owned by Pat Costello and Gabriel Duignan, who founded the operation in 2001. Costello serves as Paramount's managing officer.

A native of Kilkenny County, Ireland, Costello has spent 20 years in the Central Kentucky Thoroughbred industry, managing Crescent Hill Farm and later his own Drumkenny Farm. The latter is a full-service boarding operation that caters to clients such as Sam-Son Farm of Canada.

Pat Costello

Duignan, also a native of Ireland, came to the United State in the mid-1980s, first working for Circle O Farm and later managing Ironwood Farm in Western Kentucky. In 2001, he was named President of Castleton

Gabriel Duignan

Lyons near Lexington. Two years later, Duignan opened his own full-service farm, Foxtale Farm.

Costello and Duignan first became partners 10 years ago when they created a successful pinhooking operation called "The Lads."

Frank, Mark and Duncan Taylor

Taylor Made Sales Agency

Location: Nicholasville, Kentucky

Owners: Duncan, Ben, Frank and Mark Taylor

Website: taylormadefarm.com

Background: Taylor Made was founded as a boarding operation in 1976 by Duncan Taylor, the eldest son of noted horseman Joe Taylor, who was 19 years old at the time. Joe Taylor, an acknowledged authority on Thoroughbred breeding, developed John Gaines' Gainesway Farm into a leading stallion farm during his 40-year management.

Taylor Made quickly evolved into a full-service breeding and sales operation, currently standing such stallions as Unbridled's Song, Forestry and Eskendereya. Today the 1,600-acre farm near Nicholasville, Kentucky, is owned and operated by the Taylor brothers – Duncan (president), Ben (stallion operations), Frank (boarding operations), and Mark (public sales).

Represented by its first Keeneland consignment in 1978, Taylor Made has sold more than $1 billion in Thoroughbreds. They have topped the November Sale's leading consignor list by gross sales 16 times since 1990. Taylor Made sold champion Ashado for $9 million—a world record for a broodmare prospect – at the 2005 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. The amount is the sixth-highest price ever paid for a horse at any Keeneland sale.

Three Chimneys Sales

Location: Midway, Kentucky

Owner: Robert N. Clay

President: Case Clay

Website: threechimneys.com

Background: Three Chimneys Sales, an extension of Three Chimneys Farm near Midway, Kentucky, has been representing clients in public and private sales of Thoroughbreds for more than 30 years. In 1973, owner Robert N. Clay sold his first yearling as part of a one-horse consignment to the September Sale. The yearling was a son of Bold Tactics who was bred by Clay's father, Albert. Consigned by Three Chimneys Farm, the colt was purchased by Frank Donovan for $37,000. Named George Navonod, he became a Grade 1 winner and the first stakes winner bred by Albert Clay.

Today, Clay's son, Case, is President of Three Chimneys.

Three Chimneys Farm covers nearly 1,500 acres and is world renowned for its stallions, hosting thousands of visitors each year. Seattle Slew, the 1977 Triple Crown winner, stood the majority of his career at the farm. Today, Three Chimneys' stallions include dual-classic winner and champion Big Brown, Dynaformer and Sky Mesa.

WinStar Farm

Owners: Kenny Troutt
Location: Versailles, Kentucky
Website: winstarfarm.com

Background:

Longtime friends, business associates and racing partners, Kenny Troutt and Bill Casner partnered to develop WinStar Farm near Lexington into one of the Thoroughbred industry's most successful and state-of-the-art breeding and racing operations. In October 2010, Troutt and Casner announced the dissolution of their partnership, with Troutt becoming sole owner of WinStar. Casner continues to be a client of the farm.

In 1988, Troutt founded Excel Communications, a long-distance telephone service company which integrated the growing demand for telecommunications service with the power of relationship marketing. As Founder and Chairman of Excel, his innovative business and marketing strategies resulted in the meteoric rise of the corporation and its subsequent success as a publicly traded enterprise in 1996.

WinStar enjoyed a banner racing year in 2010, with homebred Super Saver winning the Kentucky Derby (G1) and Drosselmeyer capturing the Belmont (G1). In 2009, WinStar homebred Well Armed captured the $6 million Dubai World Cup (G1).

WinStar stands 14 stallions, among them Horse of the Year Tiznow, Speightstown, Distorted Humor, Super Saver and Bluegrass Cat.

Coolmore Stud

John Magnier

Demi O'Byrne

Managing Partner: John Magnier
Agent: Demi O'Byrne
Headquarters: Fethard, County Tipperary, Ireland
Website: www.coolmore.com

Background: Coolmore's vast operation is headquartered in Fethard, County Tipperary, and also has farms in Kentucky at Ashford Stud near Versailles and in Australia at Hunter Valley in New South Wales. John Magnier, a longtime patron of Keeneland sales, is managing partner of Coolmore. Demi O'Byrne is a veterinarian who buys horses on behalf of Coolmore.

Magnier, whose family was prominently associated with jumpers in Ireland, helped establish Coolmore as one of the world's leading stallion operations. In 1975, legendary trainer Vincent O'Brien tapped Magnier to manage Coolmore for O'Brien and his partner, Robert Sangster. Their association resulted in Coolmore's domination of the European classics during the late 1970s and 1980s.

Today, Coolmore Ireland stands such leading stallions as Montjeu (IRE), Danehill Dancer and Galileo (IRE), while Giant's Causeway, Henrythenavigator, Tale of the Cat, Lookin at Lucky and Scat Daddy, among others, stand at Ashford. In addition to its stallion operations, Coolmore encompasses the famed Ballydoyle training yard, where Vincent O'Brien conditioned such champions as Sir Ivor, Nijinsky II, Alleged, Storm Bird and Sadler's Wells, and today serves as home base for Irish champion trainer Aidan O'Brien (no relation).

A keen investor, Magnier is annually ranked by the Sunday Times Rich List among the wealthiest men in Ireland. He principally campaigns horses in the colors of his wife, Susan, daughter of Vincent O'Brien. In recent years, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith have joined Magnier as business associates at Coolmore. A resident of Monaco, Tabor founded the Prince Arthur betting shop chain, which he developed from two betting shops into a chain of 113 shops. In 1995 he sold the Prince Arthur chain to Coral, one of Great Britain's largest betting shop operators. Tabor earned Keeneland's gold tray in the fall of 2008 in recognition of his eight graded stakes wins at the track. Derrick Smith, who lives primarily in Barbados, made his fortune in property and currency trading.

Either individually or in various partnerships, the Magniers, Tabor and Smith have been represented by numerous Group or Grade 1 winners and champions in Europe and the United States. Recently, the partnership won the 2011 Epsom Derby (G1) with Pour Moi; Prix du Jockey-Club (G1) and Irish 2,000 Guineas (G1) with Roderic O'Connor (IRE); Irish 1,000 Guineas (G1) with Misty for Me (IRE); and 2010 Irish Derby (G1) and 2011 Arlington Million (G1) with Cape Blanco (IRE).

countries (Australia, Canada, Dubai, England, Ireland, France, Italy, Germany, Hong Kong, Japan, Singapore and the United States). Among its many stakes winners are Blue Bunting, Street Cry (IRE), Pebbles, Oh So Sharp, Indian Skimmer, Old Vic, Singspiel, Balanchine, Lammtarra, Fantastic Light, Pennekamp and Sheikh Mohammed's personal favorite, Dubai Millennium.

Godolphin is headquartered at Al Quoz Stables in Dubai, where the horses winter until they are sent to Godolphin Stables or Moulton Paddocks in Newmarket for the summer and their international campaigns.

Sheikh Mohammed also owns Darley Stud Management Company Ltd, which is headquartered at Dalham Hall Stud, also near Newmarket. In Kentucky, Darley's operation is based at Darley at Jonabell, the former Jonabell Farm acquired from the family of founder John A. Bell in 2001. The 16 Kentucky stallions there include Bernardini, Elusive Quality, Hard Spun, Holy Bull, Medaglia d'Oro, Offlee Wild, Street Cry (IRE) and Street Sense.

John Ferguson, on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed, purchased the two highest-priced horses in November Sale history: Playful Act (IRE) for $10.5 million in 2007 and Ashado for $9 million in 2005.

Sheikh Mohammed is widely credited for spearheading Dubai's emergence as a modern business and tourism center. He was instrumental in creating the world's richest race, the $6 million Dubai World Cup, which debuted in 1996 and was held at the new Meydan Racecourse in 2010.

Katsumi Yoshida

Farm: Northern Farm
Location: Hokkaido, Japan

Background: Katsumi Yoshida is the founder and owner of Northern Farm, located on the northern island of Hokkaido in Japan. Northern Farm is both a horse breeding and training facility with about 1,300 horses that include broodmares, stallions and racing stock.

At the 2009 Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale, Yoshida purchased multiple Grade 1 winner Island Fashion for $950,000. Later that year, he purchased champion Azeri for $2.25 million at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale as well as Loves Only Me for $900,000.

At the races, Northern Farm-bred horses have had many successes, breeding champion older mare Admire Groove, twice winner of the Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup in Japan. Yoshida's horses Delta Blues and Pop Rock finished 1-2 in the 2006 Melbourne Cup (G1).

Northern Farm bred such 2010 Group 1 stakes winners Vermillion (Kawasaki Kinen), Apapane (Japan Oaks and 1,000 Guineas) and Rose Kingdom (Japan Cup).

Internationally, Northern Farm also serves as a top consignor. Two of their notable sales came in 2007. A half brother to Northern Farm-bred Dubai Duty Free (G1) winner Admire Moon out of Japanese Horse of the Year Air Groove set the sales record in Japan for the highest-priced yearling to be sold at a public auction, selling at the equivalent of $2,024,291.

Mike Ryan, Agent

Residence: Lexington
Website: mikeryanbloodstock.com

Background: A third-generation horseman from County Meath, Ireland, Mike Ryan left his homeland in 1974 to work for E.P. Taylor's legendary Windfields Farm in Canada. Ryan founded his bloodstock agency in Canada before relocating to Lexington in 1981 to establish Mike Ryan Bloodstock.

Ryan's success as an agent includes being involved in the purchase of such outstanding horses as Horse of the Year Saint Liam, champions Fly So Free and Caressing, and Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint winner Desert Code.

A noted owner and breeder, Ryan has bred and/or raced such Grade 1 stakes winners as Laragh, Hot Dixie Chick and Mani Bhavan, and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (G2) winner More Than Real.

Ryan manages Top Yield Bloodstock in association with noted two-year-old consignor Niall Brennan. That operation focuses on purchasing yearlings and reselling them as two-yearlings.

Shadai Farm

Location: Hokkaido, Japan
Principal: Teruya "Terry" Yoshida

Background: The Yoshida family's Shadai Farm is one of the world's most famous Thoroughbred operations. Shadai Stallion Station, home of such leading stallions as the late Northern Taste and Sunday Silence, is located on the island of Hokkaido in Japan.

Principal Teruya "Terry" Yoshida's grandfather, Zenuske Yoshida, was one of the first Japanese to import Thoroughbreds from the United States on a major scale. He died in 1946, leaving the family business to his son Zenya Yoshida (Terry's father) and his two brothers. Zenya Yoshida founded Shadai in 1955.

Zenya Yoshida had formerly owned a stud farm in the Tokyo region that the Japanese government purchased in 1958 as part of the land for Narita International Airport. Yoshida used the money to buy land on Hokkaido, the northern island that is now Japan's principal center of Thoroughbred breeding, and developed Shadai Farm there.

When Teruya Yoshida graduated in economics from Keio University in 1969, his father sent him to Kentucky to manage Fontainebleau Farm, then the American branch of Shadai. He spent five years at Fontainebleau, during which time he spent $100,000 for Northern Taste, a son of Northern Dancer who won the 1974 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp and became the champion stallion in Japan for 11 consecutive years.

Sunday Silence, winner of the 1989 Kentucky Derby (G1), Preakness (G1) and Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) entered stud at Shadai in 1991 and became a perennial leading sire. He died in 2002 at the age of 16.

Shadai Stallions Station currently stands about 28 stallions. They include 2002 Kentucky Derby (G1) winner War Emblem.

Shadai purchased Lucky One, carrying a full sibling to champion Blind Luck, for $1.85 million at the 2010 November Sale.
