Zenyatta stops at Keeneland in her final public appearance

A-Despite piercing cold, more than 1,000 people from all over the country gather at Keeneland on December 6, 2010, to see Zenyatta, who stops here after flying from Southern California to Blue Grass Airport to begin a new career as a broodmare at Lane's End near Versailles. Groom Mario Espinoza shows the 2010 Horse of the Year at the outdoor show ring near the sales pavilion. B-Keeneland's Betsy Baxter presents owners Jerry and Ann Moss, who purchased the champion as a yearling here, with a

Keeneland gift basket of the mare's favorites, including mints, pears and Guinness beer. C-John Shirreffs trained Zenyatta to win 19 of 20 races and earn $7,304,580. D-Fans sign a guest book for the champion. E-Kentucky's First Lady, Jane Beshear, is among Zenyatta's admirers. F-Two fans bring peppermints for Zenyatta. G-A fan touches equine royalty as Shirreffs' wife, Dottie, looks on.

Keep up with Zenyatta at Zenyatta.com and on her Facebook page.
